Making Movie Magic:

Feel free to check out our bulletin boards full of the kids art from the various different themes.

Welcome!

We offer a big thank you to everyone for bearing with us during our staffing adjustments. Your kids have been incredibly welcoming to anyone who has filled in over the last several months. We are excited to share that we have officially welcomed Jenna Stevey to our team. A little about Jenna in her own words:

“Hi Families of Washington! I just moved to Pittsburgh last year from Maryland, so I am still relatively new to the area. I absolutely love it so far. I like to spend time with my three cats and have a penchant for knitting and baking. I also have a background in music. Before starting at MLEDP, I worked at MACS as a teaching assistant I am looking forward to getting to know you and your children!”

Hygge

Our kickoff to the new year has been to focus on the Danish concept of hygge. Difficult to translate, it's about a feeling of comfort and contentment that comes from being cozy and together. We have tried to embrace this in our room layout, and really drive the kids to connect with each other in a way that they don't normally. Our daily meetings are big component of this. We have embraced learning about each other with thoughtful questions and thoughtful answers.

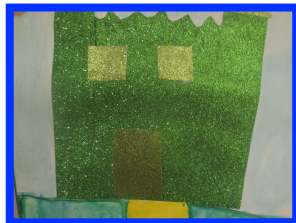

Reading Area

In conjunction with the school's read-a-thon, we have revamped our reading nook to better provide some "hygge" like comforts. We laid down some yoga mats, placed our cozy, blue bean bags on top, and then we made a couch, well sort of, more like a fake couch (or "f"-ouch for short). Constructed of four crates, some chair cushions, a pillow, and a cover it has been warmly received. Additionally, we have a wide selection of the past year's most impressive picture books. All Caldecott contenders, kids have had the opportunity to vote for which one they think should win!

Kindness Olympics

Our monthly goal for February is to let kindness, encouragement, and caring take center stage.

Back by popular demand are the kindness olympics helping to spur that social emotional growth.

Staff Spotlight: Ms. Corie

Ms. Corie has been a dedicated member of the Washington Staff for the last two school years. She consistently engages the kids with high quality art, science, and gym activities, sparking imagination and curiosity. Over the past month, we have had the pleasure of tramping Fantasy and Comedy genres leading to such innovative creations as using balloons to comedical splatter paint, constellations to engage with the zodiac legends, and the sparkling grandeur of the Emerald City fostering discussion of one of The Wizard of Oz

And in the gym glow in the dark Cosmic Chaos was a runaway success. Always willing to read a book, play a game, or just hang out, we are incredibly lucky to have Ms. Corie here at Washington!

Big Kids Programming:

With the addition of our permanent third person, we will be able to return to a more steady offering of clubs and activities exclusive to the fourth and fifth graders. They have been great at letting us know their wants and desires throughout the year. We appreciate their leadership with the younger children these last several months.

Open Communication: We encourage all families to communicate with us on an ongoing basis. While many MLEDP staff come in contact with your child throughout the day, we are all happy to answer any questions you may have or put you in contact with the staff person most suited to address your concerns. You can also email us at washington@mledp.org
