

Hollywood Week

Lesson Plan Form

Day and Date: ~~Thursday~~ Wednesday, Sep. 25

Staff Member(s) Leading Activity: Theresa Kretzmer

Think About It:	Activity Title/Description:	Skills children will accomplish: Teamwork Fine oral motor skills Spatial awareness and directionality	Which S.T.E.A.M. skills can be applied?	Child's Role in the Activity (e.g., Leadership/Participant)	Is additional staff needed? If so, describe.	Space Needed:	Activity will work in multiple spaces?	Materials Needed? I will supply all materials needed except for food coloring and cups.	Activity Introduction/ Sell It:	Activity Directions:
	Pretending to Make A Movie	Teamwork, storytelling, public speaking, fine motor, imaginative play, spatial awareness,	Painting, spatial reasoning, counting roles	Participant	NO	Main MLED P Space	Yes	Paint, Dress-up supplies if possible, not necessary	Make Your Own Movie!	1. Directions Explained 2. Children Choose from a list of "Movie set-up" jobs. 3. Children make simple costumes and sets, and write a simple script 4. Children choose acting roles/ are assigned them.
								1. First the children will mix their own bubble solution in a small cup. 2. They will each get food coloring of their choice dropped into the bubble cup. 3. The children will use the straw to blow bubbles in their cup. 4. Once bubbles are formed, the children will lay the fresh paper on the

Think About It:	top of their bubbles creating a print on the paper. They can move from one cup to another in order to get rainbow colors on each sheet.
Wrap up- Discuss activity highlights, benefits, successes, take aways	The club was really good for multiple ages, due to the variety of possible ways to participate, & it promoted teamwork & creativity
Activity Duration: 30 minutes	45 mins	Reading problems, problems with arguing over roles. I'll try to make sure that everything is equitable.
What pitfalls might you expect?	How would you remedy them?
Evaluate the activity –	What went well?
What modifications would you make next time?	Write some scripts as prep/ examples before club starts, to encourage acting.		